

Enrolment Procedure: Foundation and Transition Programs

1. Purpose

This Enrolment Procedure for the Foundation and Transition Programs is designed to implement the UNSW College (College) Enrolment Policy and is specific to the College's Foundation and Transition Programs. This document should be read in conjunction with that Policy.

2. Scope

This Procedure applies to all Students enrolling at the College in Foundation and Transition Programs and any staff involved in the Enrolment process.

3. Enrolment

- (a) Enrolment is a process by which Students remain active in their program and have subjects and classes assigned for a specific Study Period based on program requirements and offerings.
- (b) International Students must comply with Student visa conditions, which include maintaining a full-time Enrolment, satisfactory attendance and academic progress and the confirmation of appropriate welfare arrangements if under eighteen (18) years of age.

4. Enrolment Deadlines

- (a) Orientation Days: as outlined in the Student Offer Letter;
- (b) Commencement date: the first day of classes in the teaching period;
- (c) Enrolment deadline: Friday of the first week of the teaching period, subject to approval; and
- (d) Late arrival date: Friday of the first week of classes (approval only).

5. Correction or Change of Personal Details

- (a) All College Students are required to maintain current contact details within the College Student Management System (SMS). Students need to ensure records are updated as soon as any changes occur.
- (b) If International Students under the age of 18 reside with a parent or guardian, they must also maintain the address and contact details of the parent or guardian on the Student portal. The College will communicate with the Student's parents and / or guardian on matters related to a Student's academic progress, attendance and wellbeing. Refer to the College International Students Under 18 Policy and International Students Under 18 Procedure for further detail.
- (c) Students can request to change or correct the College record of their: Formal Name, Date of Birth, Gender, Contact Details including email address and mailing address and preferred name. The legal name must appear on the Student's birth certificate or passport.
- (d) International Students are required to notify the College of their contact details within seven (7) days of arriving in Australia and within seven (7) days of any subsequent change. Contact details required include: current residential address, mobile number and email address and who to contact in emergency situations.

- (e) Students are not permitted to change their formal name, date of birth, gender or residency status in the Student portal or the College Student Management System (SMS) without prior approval and supporting documents may be required.
- (f) Change of address details can be updated on the Student Portal.
- (g) Supporting documents from overseas must be certified by either:
 - i. a Justice of the Peace, who will sign a copy of the original and add their registration number; or
 - ii. an authorised representative from Student Enquiries at the College.
- (h) Supporting documents (see the list below) from Domestic Students can be verified via the DVS at www.dvs.gov.au:
 - i. Australian Birth Certificate;
 - ii. Australian Passport;
 - iii. Australian Change of Name Certificate;
 - iv. Australian Marriage Certificate;
 - v. Australian Driver License.
- (i) Email is the main mode of formal communication from the College. All Students are required to read emails sent to their College email address, as it may contain vital administrative information or teaching material not provided any other way. If Students use an email account other than the centrally provided College account, they must arrange to redirect their College email to that account.

6. Enrolment criteria

6.1 Full-time Enrolment

A full-time Enrolment is the equivalent of 20 contact hours per week.

6.2 Enrolment criteria for International Students

- (a) International Students are required to enroll in a full-time capacity, ensuring that they complete the program within the expected duration of study identified in their Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE).
- (b) It is a Student's responsibility to ensure that they meet a minimum of eighty percent program attendance. Please refer to the Attendance Monitoring Policy and Attendance Monitoring Procedure.
- (c) If a Student is unable to complete the Program within the original duration of the CoE, the Student will need to apply to repeat the program and for a new CoE to be issued.

7. Absence from Classes

7.1 Explanation of Absence: Less than five (5) days

- (a) If a Student misses between one to five (1-5) days of classes, an Explanation of Absence Form must be completed, in addition to demonstrating compassionate or compelling grounds for the absence. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.

7.2 Leave of Absence

- (a) If a Student misses more than five (5) days of classes, a Leave of Absence form must be completed and lodged together with an official medical certificate, from an approved Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) registered practitioner, or other supporting documentation recognised as Compassionate or Compelling evidence. All supporting documentation must be in English or translated into English by a certified translator. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.
- (b) A Student is allowed to take up to 28 days leave of absence due to illness, unexpected events, compassionate or compelling circumstances.
- (c) A leave of absence in excess of 28 days is not permitted and will require a Student to withdraw and re-apply for admission.

8. Program Withdrawal

- (a) Students who seek to change their program after Commencement, must withdraw from the initial program in which they enrolled and re-apply to Admission for an alternative program.
- (b) The exception to (a) above, is if a Student wishes to repeat the same program, in which case, see Section 10 for Program Repeat.
- (c) Students can withdraw from a program, if:
 - i. the Student is returning to their home country (departing Australia and a copy of a return airline ticket is required within 28 days);
 - ii. a release is granted by the College to transfer to another education provider (see the International Student Transfer Policy);
 - iii. the Student did not meet the UNSW Sydney entry requirements;
 - iv. the Student is deemed to have compassionate or compelling reasons, and this is supported by the College (see the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy);
 - v. the Student is dissatisfied with the program (a written statement is required).
- (d) To withdraw, a Student is required to submit the Application to Withdraw Form to the College Enrolment team by email: enrolments@unswcollege.edu.au.

9. Change of Stream and Change of Class

9.1 Change of Stream:

- (a) Students may submit a Change of Stream request form by Friday, Week 1 in the first Term via email to enrolments@unswcollege.edu.au. A copy of the Change of Stream form can be located on the Forms page of the Current Student Hub website: <https://my.unswcollege.edu.au/forms>
- (b) New Stream eligibility is based on the College Admissions team's assessment and is subject to approval.
- (c) Once the outcome is available, the Student's Enrolment will be changed to the new stream and the UNSW Sydney degree program offer will be revised.
- (d) Students are expected to remain in their current stream and class until they have been notified that their request has been approved.

9.2 Change of Class:

- (a) Students who wish to change class must submit a change request by Friday, Week 1 in the first Term.

Students with compassionate and compelling reasons may submit a change of class request at any time during the teaching period. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.

- (b) A copy of the Change of Class form can be located on the Forms page of the Current Student Hub website: <https://my.unswcollege.edu.au/forms>
- (c) All Change of Class request forms are to be submitted via email to: EDU_AcademicServices@unswcollege.edu.au for processing.
- (d) Change of Class requests outside of the initial period outlined above in point (a), will only be approved based on Compelling or Compassionate grounds. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.
- (e) Students are expected to remain in their original class group until they have been notified that their request has been approved.

9.3 Change of UNSW Sydney Undergraduate Degree Preferences

Students can change their undergraduate program preferences before completion of their Foundation and Transition Program studies.

10. Program Repeats

- (a) Students may be eligible to repeat a College Foundation or Transition Program if:
 - i. during their studies, or at the time of completion, they do not meet the entry requirements to their pathway UNSW Sydney Program and therefore will receive an invitation to repeat the Program; or
 - ii. Students who have been referred to repeat their programs due to compassionate and compelling reasons.

- (b) Students may not be eligible to repeat a College Foundation or Transition program if any of the following conditions apply:
- i. Students have a record of poor attendance resulting in the issuance during previous studies, of attendance warning letters or in the issuance of a letter of an intention to report to the Department of Home Affairs;
 - ii. Students have already repeated or restarted a Foundation or Transition Program twice;
 - iii. Students are in breach of their Student visa conditions or any College Foundation or Transition Program conditions of Enrolment;
 - iv. a Foundation Program Student's GPA was less than 3.0, in which case an interview with a senior academic staff member is required to consider the request to repeat;
 - v. Students want to repeat a different stream within the Foundation or Transition Programs.
- (c) Students can only repeat the same program in the next available teaching period. Students will be invited to apply to repeat by submitting the Request to Repeat Form to the Enrolments team and this will be subject to approval by the College.

Foundation Program - Standard & Standard Plus	Final GPA less than 5.0	Students will need to repeat the full program
	Final GPA more than 5.0	Students may be able to repeat Semester 2 only
