

Enrolment Procedure: Pre-Masters Program

1. Purpose

This Enrolment Procedure for the Pre-Masters Program is designed to implement the UNSW College (College) Enrolment Policy and is specific to the College's Pre-Masters Program. This document should be read in conjunction with that Policy.

2. Scope

This Procedure applies to all Students enrolling at the College in the Pre-Masters Program and any staff involved in the Enrolment process.

3. Enrolment

- (a) Enrolment is a process by which Students remain active in their program, subjects are assigned for a specific Study Period based on program requirements and offerings and subsequently Students will be registered for classes.
- (b) Following an offer and acceptance of a place at the College, Students will be enrolled in subjects and classes for their approved program of study. Registration for specific classes may occur several weeks prior to the Commencement of each Term.
- (c) A Student is enrolled if, by the start date as specified in the Letter of Offer or as specified on the College website under Key Dates, they have:
  - i. enrolled in subjects in the relevant Term or Study Period of the Academic Year; and
  - ii. satisfied any Enrolment conditions identified in the Letter of Offer, or resulting from processes applied through the Academic Progression and Exclusion Policy, Student Misconduct Policy, Attendance Monitoring Policy and / or Academic Misconduct Policy;
  - iii. an appropriate Student visa, if an International Student; and
  - iv. paid any requisite fees and charges.

4. Student Study Load

4.1 Units of Credit

- (a) A Student's study load and whether it is considered full-time or part-time, is determined by the total Units of Credit (UoC) value undertaken by a Student across the required Term or Study Period to complete the Program.
- (b) Successful completion of a Program requires that 18 UoC are completed in one Term or Study Period.

4.2 Full-time study load for Pre-Masters Program

A normal full-time study load is 18 Units of Credit (UoC) in the relevant Term or Study Period.

4.3 Study Load for Domestic Students

Domestic Students may be eligible for a part-time study load, providing they maintain a minimum of 12 UoC per Term or Study Period, with the exception of their final Term, when their study load may be less than 12 UoC.

4.4 Students at Risk of Poor Academic Performance

Students at risk of poor academic performance may have enrolment conditions imposed as part of an intervention strategy, which may result in less than a full-time load. More detail is in the Academic Progression and Exclusion Policy and the Academic Progression and Exclusion Procedure.

4.5 International Student Study Load

- (a) International Students are required to enrol in a study load that ensures completion of the program within the expected duration of study identified in their Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE).
- (b) International Students who need to extend their Enrolment, in order to complete the program, due to failed subjects:
  - i. will only be provided with an extended CoE to reflect the revised Study Period where an intervention strategy has been implemented;
  - ii. are permitted to take less than a full-time study load;
  - iii. are responsible for checking with the Department of Home Affairs to determine whether the revised CoE will have any impact on their current Student visa status;
  - iv. will receive an extended CoE for the UNSW Sydney program, if holding a Packaged Offer to a UNSW Sydney degree.

5. Census Dates

- (a) Each Academic Program has designated Census Dates in each Term or Study Period which are published on the website under Key Dates.
- (b) Census Dates are typically the Sunday of week four of the teaching period.
- (c) The Census Date each Term is the last day a Student can request to withdraw from the program without financial penalty.
- (d) For details relating to Student Fees and Refunds, see the Student Fees Policy and Student Fees Procedure and the Student Refund Policy and the Student Refund Procedure.

- (e) Any Student who is enrolled in the Pre-Masters Program on the Census Date is deemed to be effectively enrolled and liable for any relevant fees and charges for any subjects in which they are enrolled.

6. Current Contact Details for Students

- (a) All College Students are required to maintain current contact details within the College Student Management System (SMS).
- (b) International Students are required to notify the College of their contact details within seven (7) days of arriving in Australia and within seven (7) days of any subsequent change. Contact details required include current residential address, mobile number and email address and name and details of a contact in the event of any emergency situations.

7. Change of Personal Details and/or Visa Status

- (a) Students can request to change or correct the College record of their: Formal Name, Date of Birth, Gender, Contact Details including email address and mailing address and preferred name. The legal name must appear on the Student's birth certificate or passport.
- (b) Students are not permitted to change their personal details or visa status in the College SMS.
- (c) In order to change a Student's personal details or visa status, Students must lodge a Change of Personal Details request via the Student Portal with the Enrolments team and provide relevant supporting documents.
- (d) Students who have been admitted or have applied as an International Student and subsequently achieve Australian Permanent Residency must notify the College within seven (7) days of receiving formal confirmation from the Department of Home Affairs by submitting the Residency Change Form.

8. Enrolment Process

8.1 Enrolment Process

Students are required to enrol by the start date as specified in the Letter of Offer or as specified on the College website under Key Dates.

8.2 Subject Selection

- (a) Students will be automatically enrolled by the College into their required subjects.
- (b) At all times, Students are responsible for checking their Enrolment status and subject selection in the Student Management System (SMS), including ensuring their Enrolment forms part of the approval structure for the program in which they are enrolled.

8.3 Reporting of International Students who Fail to Re-enrol

International Students who fail subjects must re-enrol into the next available teaching period. Failure to re-enrol will result in Students being reported to the Department of Home Affairs within thirty-one (31) days after the Commencement of the relevant teaching period.

8.4 Registration for Classes

Where class self-registration options exist, Students will be responsible for selecting their preferred classes by the start date for that teaching period. Failure to do so, may result in Students not having any choice in timetabled class times.

9. Change of Enrolment – Domestic Students only

9.1 Withdrawal from a Subject

- (a) A Student may apply to withdraw from a subject at any time during a teaching period. However, different academic and financial outcomes will apply depending on the timing of the withdrawal.
- (b) Detailed information relating to the outcome of withdrawals at different times can be viewed on the College website.

9.2 Withdrawal from a Subject due to Compassionate or Compelling Circumstances

A Student may withdraw from a subject after Census Date or an Academic Withdrawal Date without the associated academic or financial penalty, if the reasons for the withdrawal fall within the limits of compassionate or compelling circumstances. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.

9.3 Financial impact of withdrawal from a subject

The financial impact of withdrawing from a subject can be found in the Student Refund Policy and the Student Refund Procedure.

10. Change of program

- (a) Students who wish to change programs will need to meet the relevant entry requirements for the program into which they are seeking admission, in accordance with the Admissions Policy.
- (b) Students who wish to change their program should email admissions@unswcollege.edu.au and may be required to withdraw from their current program before the start date.

11. Cancellation of Enrolment by the College

- (a) A Student's Enrolment may be cancelled by the College:
  - i. for breach of and in accordance with the Academic Progression and Exclusion Policy, the Academic Misconduct Policy or the Student Misconduct Policy;

- ii. for non-payment of fees by the due date;
  - iii. for consistent failure to make Satisfactory Academic Progress;
  - iv. if an International Student, for a breach of Student visa conditions, including failure of the Student to enrol;
- (b) If the College cancels a Student's Enrolment, the Student will be:
- i. informed in writing of the cancellation and the reason for the cancellation;
  - ii. advised of their right of appeal under the Student Review and Appeal Policy;
  - iii. if an International Student, advised of the need to seek advice about visa implications and the steps that will be undertaken by the College and those that must be undertaken by the Student.
- (c) If the Student appeals the decision to cancel their Enrolment, the Enrolment cancellation will be suspended until the appeals process is completed.
- (d) The College will securely store all documents and evidence relating to the cancellation.

12. Deferral of Studies

- (a) Applicants who have received an offer of a place in a Pre-Masters program at the College, may apply for a Deferral of studies.
- (b) The Deferral request must:
- i. be in writing, addressed to admissions@unswcollege.edu.au explaining the reason for the Deferral request;
  - ii. be submitted to the College prior to the Commencement of studies in the offered program;
  - iii. specify the duration of the Deferral sought, which can be no longer than twelve (12) months.
  - iv. If a Student Visa has already been granted, applications for Deferral will only be considered on the grounds of compassionate or compelling circumstances. Further details can be found in the Compassionate and Compelling Circumstances Policy.
- (c) Applicants will be notified in writing of the outcome of their request within five (5) working days of receipt. If approved, the College will specify the teaching period in which the applicant will take up their deferred place and enrol. If an applicant does not enrol in the specified teaching period, the offer of a place will lapse.
- (d) Deferral may not be available if a program is being withdrawn and a teach out of that program is planned.
- (e) Fees and charges that are applied are those current at the time the applicant takes up their place and enrolls.

- (f) International Students will be advised that a Deferral may affect their visa status and they should seek advice from the Department of Home Affairs.

13. Program Leave for Domestic Students

- (a) Domestic Students may apply for Program Leave from their program of study up to a period of twelve (12) months, providing:
  - i. they are enrolled in their second or later teaching period; and
  - ii. the application is received no later than the relevant Census Date in the teaching period in which they are enrolled.
- (b) Domestic Students should be aware that any Program Leave sought after Census Date will be subject to the College rules for withdrawal and may result in academic and / or financial penalties.
- (c) Domestic Students, who have received approval for Program Leave will be provided with written notification upon their return. If Program Leave is approved by the College and the program in which the Student was enrolled is discontinued during the period of leave, the College will make every effort to ensure the Student is offered the same or a near-equivalent program.
- (d) If a Student is excluded or suspended under College policies or rules, no Program Leave will be granted.
- (e) The fees and charges that apply in the teaching period in which the Student returns to study, will be applicable when the Student re-enrols.
- (f) The Enrolment of Students who do not re-enrol in the teaching period specified in the approved Program Leave, will be cancelled and the Student will then have to re-apply for admission.

14. Program withdrawal

- (a) Students wishing to withdraw their Enrolment with the College should submit a Withdrawal Request Form to enrolments@unswcollege.edu.au.
- (b) The academic and financial impact of the withdrawal will depend on the date the withdrawal request is received by the College. Further detail is contained in the Student Refund Policy and the Student Refund Procedure.
- (c) After program withdrawal, a Student's Enrolment is cancelled. If a Student wishes to resume studies at a future date, an application for re-admission will need to be submitted.
- (d) For International Students who withdraw their Enrolment with the College:
  - i. the College will cancel the Student's CoE and notify the Department of Home Affairs of the program withdrawal;
  - ii. the Student is required to notify the Department of Home Affairs of the program withdrawal to arrange an alternate visa or depart Australia within twenty-eight (28) days;

- (e) Students who wish to transfer to another provider prior to completing the first six (6) months of their principal program will need to apply for a release under the International Student Transfer Policy.
